

Worker On Dam Dies When Truck Runs Over Body

Jimmie Tocci, formerly of Chicago but recently employed at Boulder City on the dam project, was fatally injured yesterday when a truck ran over him.

Tocci was injured on the Arizona side of the river, and died in Nevada as he was being rushed in an ambulance to the Boulder City hospital.

His passing away in this state necessitates an inquest which Coroner Frank M. Ryan will hold today.