

Gas Suit No. 7 Filed Against Six Companies

Nearly a half-million dollars will be paid out by the Six companies in damages if it loses suits now pending in the local court, the seventh of which was filed yesterday.

The plaintiff in the latest action is Harry Curtis, who seeks $75,000 for alleged ill health caused by carbon monoxide gas.

Attorney Paul Ralli represents him.