

Robert and Maita Fish share stories and the life history of James C

JAMES CLAYTON FLORY

James Clayton Flory was born in Tacoma, Washington March 19, 1910
Wilma Nichols Flory. Not too much is known by this writer of Clayton's

His father worked in Tacoma as a bookkeeper for a lumber company, w the home duties. Burt was the oldest son in a group of seven children b Flory, who operated a drayage service in Sodaville, Oregon.

Wilma Nichols Flory was an only daughter of James and Sarah Nich modern and independent woman for her time.

In 1917 Wilma & the children, Keith age 9, Clayton age 7 & Dorothy home in Plainview, Oregon. They lived with James & Sarah Nichols u built their home on the eighty acres that is on the west side of Parker R enough to help & together they built a nice 4 bedroom two story country

There was a cool room all insulated with sawdust & thick walls, a sev room. Four years later Burt, Keith & Clayton added to the east side a morning sun. It had windows on three sides, making a very cheerful ro wall from ceiling to floor, only stopping for the window . He placed glas nice display for Wilma's good dishes. Later two glass front dish disp
... which Dorothy filled ... in her later years. The din