

Ranch Market

Reopens At

New Location

BOULDER CITY — Replacing the old Ranch Market which burned down in one of Boulder City's most spectacular blazes, Mr. Louis Holt has opened a new market on Wyoming St.

Since the fire completely destroyed the old building, Holt has remodeled the former Elks' Hall to house the new Ranch Market.

Holt first came to Boulder City in 1946 to work for Joe Manix in Manix Department Store. In 1954 he opened his own grocery store on Nevada Highway.