

Retirement Party Honors Veteran Hoover Employe

BOULDER CITY — Horace D. Ringstaff, janitor leadman on the Boulder Canyon Project, was honored recently at a retirement party held in the assembly room at Hoover Powerplant.

D. O. Towne, head of the Engineering Division, presented Ringstaff with souvenir folders and booklets containing pictures of Hoover Dam.

Ringstaff also received two $50 U.S. Savings Bonds from the Boulder Canyon Project Employes Benefit Association. He retired because of ill health after 12 years and 9 months of Government service.

He was born in Austin, Texas on May 11, 1894. From May 28, 1917 to June 10, 1919, he served in the U. S. Army. He was employed by the Navy Department in Alameda, Calif., from October 1945 to November 1946 as a patrolman and guard.
