Well, if the two best
have come back already,
it won't be long before the others show up.

1/25/33

Tonight I am sending the following fleet of
poems:

"Trees" - to The Caela
"Perpetual Wonder" - Parents
"A Question of Time" - Herald
"I Want a Man" - Sol. Inc. Post

Pray heaven they reach their destinations and soon bring good tidings.

All poems in this book are original. As for the prose - although other people may have written on the same subjects, these particular words are mine. I mean the combinations
of them are - The words themselves belong to the world if it wants
them.
