

Boulder, Henderson C.C. Groups to Discuss License Ordinance with Co. Board

A delegation from the Boulder City chamber of commerce and another from the Henderson chamber are expected to meet with the board of county commissioners in Las Vegas on January 8, to discuss with them the meanings and implications of the new ordinance authorizing the county licensing board to control businesses in Clark county, according to Robert Carter, president of the Boulder City chamber.