

The Story of Boulder Dam

T H E S T O R Y O F Boulder Dam

CONSERVATION
BULLETIN NO. 9

UNITED STATES
DEPARTMENT OF
THE INTERIOR
HAROLD L. ICKES
SECRETARY

BUREAU OF RECLAMATION
JOHN C. PAGE
COMMISSIONER

UNITED STATES
GOVERNMENT
PRINTING OFFICE
WASHINGTON, D. C.
1941

THE STORY OF BOULDER DAM

Contents

Explanation	1
Chronology	3

THE RIVER

Page 1

The Exploring Spaniards Come	8
A Dangerous Obstacle	8
Flood . . . and Drought	10
The Bold Decision	11
The Black Canyon Site	12
Dividing the Waters	15
The Boulder Canyon Project Act	17

THE DAM

Page 19

The Fundamental Problem	19
The Struggle Begins	22
Greatest Machinery Ever Seen	25
Plan of Attack	26
The Engineers Turn the River	28
An Impasse Confronts	29
The River Harnessed at Last	33

THE BENEFITS

Page 35

A Significant Prophecy	35
Lake Mead Swallows the Floods	36
No More Drought	39
A Vital Metropolitan Water Supply	40
The Silt Menace Subdued	44
Navigation on the Colorado	45
A Nation's New Playground	46
Haven for Wildlife	47
Power and the Strength of the West	48
The Endless Tune of Untold Wealth	49
Increasing Power Generation	50
The Ramified Benefits	54
The Benefits Multiplied	56

Addenda

Facts and Figures	59
Bibliography	71