

BCN, Tues 22 July 1947

Edmund Schulz Brings Bride, Violet Maass, To Boulder City Home

Violet Maass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maass of Okarche, Okla., and Edmund Schultz of Boulder City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schulz of Fort Collins, Colo., were married at 8 p.m. June 29 in St. John's Lutheran Church at Okarche.

Rev. Paul Hoyer read the double ring service before an altar decorated with ferns and white gladioli.

Delbert Maass and Melvin Meyer, nephews of the bride, lighted the candles.

Robert K. Mattson, organist, played the traditional Lohengein and Mendelsshon wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Robert K. Wattson who sang Molotte's "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Twenty-Third Psalm."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother Floyd Maass, wore a gown of white bridal satin, fashioned with a high neckline, fitted bodice and cap sleeves. A peplum in the back folded into the train of the full skirt. Satin-covered buttons extended the full length of the front of the bodice. She wore long white satin mitts and her fingertip length veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and orange blossoms. The bride carried an orchid on a prayer book which had been in her family for five generations.

Mrs. Marion Benedict of Ft. Collins, Colo., sister of the bridegroom, was her matron of honor and wore her wedding gown of white lace and satin.

Mrs. Howard Byrnes, Dorothea Themer and Marie Themer were bridesmaids and wore dresses of brocaded satin in pastel shades was flower girl and wore a long white taffeta dress with matching wristlets and carried a white satin covered basket of rose petals.

Arthur Schulz was best man for his brother. The ushers were Edmund Maass, brother of the bride, and Virgil Lee Meyer, nephew of the bride.

The reception was held in the recreation room of the church immediately after the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Oklahoma College for Women, where she was active in art and sports clubs. She also was a member of Pi Zeta Kappa sorority and other campus organizations.

Schulz was graduated from Colorado A. & M. College, where he was a member of Sigma Tau honorary engineering fraternity. A World War II veteran he served