

Fred E. Troxel Killed by Auto

Fred E. Troxel was killed Thursday night when he was hit by an automobile on highway 95 near the Three Little Pigs cafe. Fred Troxel's relatives in Boulder City are his wife and his ten year old son.

There will be no funeral here and it is probable that the final services will take place in Missouri.

Lawrence T. Edgar, of Paradise Valley, was the driver of the car.

Coroner Charles Dohrenwend will conduct an inquest Monday to try to determine the responsibility of death. Until final arrangements are made Troxel's body will remain at the Palm Funeral Home in Las Vegas.

Fred Troxel was well known in Boulder City where he lived at 644 Ave. K. He worked as Manager of the Boulder City Laundry, and was a member of Rotary. He and his wife attended the Grace Community Church and Mrs. Troxel has been active in the Ladies Aid of Church.
