Miss Betty Eichleay

And Elmo Skuce Wed

Announcements were received in Boulder City today of the marriage of Miss Betty Eichleay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Eichleay, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to Elmo E. Skuce, former Boulder City resident, at the Eichleay home in the eastern city. The marriage ceremony took place on November 20, it was learned.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Skuce are well-known in Boulder City. Mrs. Skuce made her home here for about two years with her brother, John Eichleay, of the Eichleay Engineering corporation, firm which installed the Boulder dam penstock systems under contract to the Babcock and Wilcox company. Skuce, who attended the University of New Mexico, was employed for a number of years in the engineering department of Six Companies Incorporated, and left here to accept a position on the Taylor Park project in Colorado.
