

JENNIE FREEMAN IS NEW DRIVE-IN CHIEF COOK

Mrs. Jim Freeman, nee Jennie Dennis, has been made chief cook for the Boulder City Drive-In, it was announced last evening.

Mrs. Freeman, who formerly was manager and cook for A. Brown Co., farm and oil field concern of Kern county, California, has had experience as manager of a boarding house where 75 to 100 people were served home style meals, it was stated.

She married Jim Freeman of the National Park Service two months ago at Whitney, and they are making their home in Boulder City. Mrs. Freeman is a member of the American Legion auxiliary.
