

Public hearings of the public lands sub-committee of the house of representatives, in Boulder City, for discussion of problems concerning the status of Boulder City, her government and her lands are planned by Congressman Charles Russell, he stated during a discussion with members of the Boulder City Chamber of Commerce.