

5/9/58

SERVICE AWARDS — Left to right, are Chester E. Mooney and Edgar N. Armstrong, who recently received 10-year service pins issued by the Department of the Interior. Both men are employed by the Boulder Canyon Project office of the Bureau of Reclamation. Mr. Mooney is a machinist apprentice at Hoover Dam, and Mr. Armstrong is a gardener foreman in Boulder City.

Pair Receive Bureau Service Awards

BOULDER CITY — Two employees of the Boulder Canyon Project, Bureau of Reclamation, recently received service pins signifying the completion of 10 years of service, each, with the Department of the Interior.

Chester E. Mooney, machinist apprentice, at Hoover Powerplant, went to work at Boulder Dam as a laborer. He advanced was promoted to leadman in April 1949, and became foreman in charge of the gardener crew in July, 1952. Before coming to Boulder City, he worked as a tree surgeon in the New England and Middle Atlantic states.

He served in the United States Army from May 1943 to October, 1943. Mr. Armstrong lives at 726 Park Street with his wife and

The pins were presented to Mr. Mooney and Mr. Armstrong by Project Manager L. I. Hudlow.