

State College in Boulder Urged by Nevada A.F.L.; Forgeron State Official

Clark county's delegation to the Nevada state A. F. of L. convention during the past week end at Ely, represented by a goodly delegation including eight from Boulder City, brought back for Southern Nevada the state secretary-treasurer position with Hy Forgeron of Las Vegas elected to that post, and secured passage of a resolution by the state organization recommending favorable action "toward establishing of an institution of higher learning in Boulder City, Nevada, or in whatever city in southern Nevada shall be adjudged most satisfactory for such institution of higher learning."

Frank Bacigalupi of Reno was elected president of the state organization. He was re-elected to the post
