

TOUGHS AT THE PASS

“I was a young girl. It was the depression years, 1931, and the dream and realization of the building of Boulder Dam brought men and women from all corners of the world.