

Clark Higgins Is Leader of Regimental Band

Pvt. Clark Higgins, who entered the army in April, has been put in charge and made leader of a regimental band at Camp Wolters, Texas, according to word received yesterday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Higgins. For a short time previously Clark had led a battalion band.

It was a natural for Clark, who had one of the first orchestras in Boulder City. He came here in 1932.
