

Families Move In As Fast As Homes Are Finished By Carpenters

boulder city page six com now

Groups of two-room houses are rapidly nearing completion in the southeast section of the "village."

Thirty-four are under construction in one group, while 15 more are being remodeled from the bunk houses moved from the old camp near the depot. All are of the same design and consist of a large kitchen, shower, combination living-room, bedroom, and a large screened in porch.