

McKee Joins Wyness Real Estate Sales Organization

Appointment of Robert I. McKee to his sales organization has been made by Gerald Wyness, real estate broker of Boulder City.

McKee, a resident of Boulder City since 1941, was employed as accountant at BMI until 1943, when he entered the navy.

While in naval service he served as skipper of the LCT-549 at Omaha beach during the Normandy invasion, and was later executive officer aboard the LST-229 in the Pacific theatre.

McKee was graduated from Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., in 1936, and later received the degree of master of arts from the same school.

The McKees live at 608 Avenue I.
