IN LAS VEGAS, ALSO p3

Fred Soly, Boulder City accountant and auditor, recently established an office in Las Vegas, where he will spend much of his time handling work for Las Vegas clients.

He will continue to maintain his office in Boulder City in the Singer building, and will be in Boulder on Wednesdays and Sundays, he said, spending most of the remainder of the week at No. 4 Mesquite building, at First and Fremont in Las Vegas, where he now occupies the office formerly used by Jerry Mosek.
