

Berry Brothers Receive Army, Navy Discharges

Dale and Lee Berry, sons of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Berry, received their discharges from the army and the navy just five days apart and both are now back home and on the job for Uncle Sam, this time as landscapers for the Bureau of Reclamation.

T/5 Dale Berry, who recently was stationed at Camp Gruber, Okla., received his discharge November 5.

Lee Berry, PhM3/c, had been stationed at Farragut, Idaho, after having served in the Pacific theatre with the navy.

He received his discharge October 31 and arrived in Boulder City November 3, accompanied by his wife, whom he married in Spokane, Washington.
