

City 7/21 Aug 1943 p 10

Jim McClain Leaving Next Tuesday to Enter Service

Jim McClain, president of the Boulder City Junior Chamber of Commerce, plans to leave Tuesday for Portland, Oregon, where he will go into military or naval service.

McClain, who has been in Boulder City for the past 17 months, has been employed at the Bureau of Mines. He expects to be inducted into the service September 18, and his wife will live in Corvallis while he is in the service.