

146 KEOUGH DEATH

Bess Ham just received word that Mortimer J. Keough, 76, died May 17 in the St. Mary's Hospital in Long Beach, California, the same day in which he suffered a stroke. He was a time keeper for the Six Companies during construction of the dam, and later transferred to the U. S.B.R. for awhile. The Keoughs have visited Boulder City since his retirement, and expected to be guests of the Hams this summer. He is survived by his wife, Mary, 4551 Atlantic Avenue, Long Beach 7, California, and two sisters.
