

Final Rites Held For Henry Tullar Saturday Morning

BOULDER CITY, Feb. 7 — Final rites for Henry B. Tullar, who died Thursday morning of pneumonia, were held in St. Andrew's Catholic church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock with the Rev. Fr. J. J. Ryan officiating.

Pall bearers were Arthur Minish, Donal J. Jolley, Martin Mitchell, Phil Harrigan, Robert Lang and William McCullough.

Rosary was recited at the church Friday night at 7 o'clock.

Members of the family will leave with the remains tonight for Simsbury, Connecticut, where services will be held Wednesday followed by burial in the family plot.

A clerk in the Lake Mead national recreational area headquarters here, Tullar was transferred to this office from the regional office in Santa Fe, New Mexico, last June. He and Geraldine McElmurry were married here January 16, and had recently taken up their residence at 545 Avenue M.
