

Daughter Is Born to Capt. and Mrs. Shipp

Capt. and Mrs R. L. Shipp are parents of a baby daughter, born September 15 at San Bernardino, according to word received by friends in Boulder City.

Captain Shipp was employed by the Bureau of Reclamation at one time during summers while he attended the University of Nevada.

Shipp's father, Roy Shipp, was in charge of various phases of electrical work in Boulder City at that time.

Captain Shipp has been stationed near Victorville, recently, having served in England and later in Iceland. He was graduated from the University of Nevada in electrical engineering.
