Lt. Paul Senter Marries Beatrice Norviel, Wave

Lt. (jg) Paul Senter, Jr., formerly of Boulder City, who has seen much service in the South Pacific as dive-bomber pilot, and Miss Beatrice Nora Norviel, Wave of the United States Naval Reserve, were married on Friday, August 25, at Gulfport, Mississippi, where Senter is now stationed.

Senter is lieutenant junior grade in the United States Naval Air corps, which he joined early in the war.

He is a graduate of Las Vegas high school and later attended the University of Nevada and Washington State college at Pullman.

He has been in service with "Butch" O'Hare's squadron in New Guinea.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Senter, Sr., were Boulder Dam pioneers, and he and their son both worked for the Bureau of Reclamation and later the National Park service here. Lieutenant Senter's father is now pioneering in the Big Bend National park in Big Bend, Tex.
