

Masonic Rites Due Today For Boulder Metallurgist

BOULDER CITY, Dec. 17 —
Masonic funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. for A. Norman Jette, 49, Bureau of Mines metallurgist who died at the Boulder City hospital yesterday at 4 p.m. following a heart attack suffered Saturday night.

The Masonic ritual will be carried out by W. T. Voss, past grand master of Nevada Masons, and pall bearers will be members of the Boulder-Vegas Shrine patrol of which Mr. Jette was a member.

Boulder City members who

will serve are Fred Geise and C. D. Potts, who is making the funeral arrangements here. Dr. W. L. Zeiger of Las Vegas is captain of the patrol.

The remains will be sent to Long Beach, Calif., for interment in the family plot at Sunnyside, where Jette's parents are buried. Bunker Bros. are in charge.

Survivors include the widow, Betty Ann Jette of 711 Fifth St., and two sons, Norman and Curtis, and a daughter, Judy, of San Bernardino.
