

GOING-AWAY GIFT—Sheridan Ballard, retired foreman of the Stauffer Chemical Co. paint department, is shown receiving a gun from L. J. Edwards, assistant works manager of the plant. The gun is a going-away gift from his fellow employes—who knew the dreams for Ballard's retiring years. He expects to "roam in a trailer, with plenty of fishing and hunting along the way."

(SUNfoto by Zander)

☆ ☆ ☆

June 29, 1960 ☆ ☆ ☆

Ballard Retires, Long Employed with Stauffer