

Armine Medlin

Armine Medlin, age 71, died in the Boulder City Hospital, October 2, after a long illness. Burial was in the Boulder - City cemetery.

He was a World War II Veteran and served with the SeaBees Division of the Navy in the South Pacific.

Mr. Medlin was born September 23, 1908 in Billings, Missouri; was married in 1925 to Vale Hoag of Joplin, Missouri. They met and were married while they both were employed by The South West Bell Telephone Company there.