

Notice to Lessees of Boulder City Company Houses:

YOUR attention is called to the terms of your lease providing that the premises covered by said lease shall be used only and exclusively as a dwelling house and for living quarters for yourself and family and shall be used for no other purpose.

(This provision prevents you from keeping boarders and/or lodgers. The interpretation placed by this office on the term "and family" permits you to provide board and/or lodging for those members of your immediate family such as father, mother, brothers, sisters, sons and daughters, but it is not the intent that this shall be interpreted as including more distant blood relatives and relatives by marriage.

Those of you who are acting in violation of the terms of lease as stated above are also violating the regulations established by the Bureau of Reclamation covering establishment of individual businesses and enterprises in Boulder City.

Those of you who now have boarders and/or lodgers must discontinue at once as we are required to report such cases to the Boulder City Police Department.
