

U.S.B.R. Calls Halt To Construction In McKeeversville

McKeeversville is frozen.

No more building will be permitted in the unplanned town until it becomes a planned town.

Under a new policy laid down today by the Bureau of Reclamation, persons wishing to start construction must obtain building permits.

A prerequisite for such a permit is a lease to the land on which the contemplated building is to stand.