

Two Have Lucky Escape When Cars Collide

Fred Holland Jr. and Warren S. Reed came away unscathed after a collision which occurred early Sunday on the highway between Boulder City and Las Vegas, and both were able to walk to Boulder City, though both cars were badly damaged in the accident.

The crash occurred about a mile east of Railroad Pass, at about 4:10 a.m. Sunday. Perlie Morris of the Reclamation rangers investigated the accident.

Shibl 25 Dec 1915