

'We Had Everything But Money'

Priceless Memories of the Great Depression...

from strong people who tell in their own words what it was like when banks closed and hearts opened.

'We Had Everything But Money'

Love and sharing saw
America's families through the Great Depression...these are the memories of those who lived through it.

Contents

- 7 Prologue
Much of what we recall about the Great Depression isn't depressing...and our parents deserve credit for that.
- 9 Chapter One • 'When the Banks Closed, Our Hearts Opened...'
As tough times enveloped the nation, folks began to see their neighbors in a new, more loving light.
- 35 Chapter Two • Braving the Dirty '30s
Dust Bowl survivors recall how they overcame the worst drought in American history.
- 47 Chapter Three • Looking for Work
With more than 10 million people out of work, many families had to start over, move on or find a new way to earn a living.
- 65 Chapter Four • Beans, Bacon & Gravy
Simple meals were standard fare in most households, but the love with which they were prepared made them unforgettable.
- 79 Chapter Five • Make It Last, Wear It Out
Recycling isn't a new idea. In the 1930s it became a way of life, helping many to get by.
- 93 Chapter Six • Cherished Photos
Everyone treasures family photos, and none are more prized than these priceless snapshots from the Depression years.
- 103 Chapter Seven • How We Got Around
From the horse and buggy to the streetcar and trolley, "getting there" was half the fun—and usually an adventure!
- 119 Chapter Eight • Love and Marriage
Whether couples met at school, through the mail or on a scavenger hunt, their stories prove that love really can conquer all.
- 135 Chapter Nine • How We Had Fun
Money may have been tight, but entertainment was never in short supply, from classic films to favorite radio shows to "homemade fun".
- 151 Chapter Ten • Christmases We Remember
The best gifts are those that come from the heart. That's what makes these recollections of Depression holidays so special.
