

A Visit to the Hoover Dam Site

By Mrs. D. L. Carmody

think of the painted drop curtain of a theater.

VEHICULAR TRAVEL FROM PRIMITIVE TO MODERN

The road which on our former trip was almost deserted was now crowded with vehicles of every description; large, powerful cars carrying tourists to view the dam site, smaller cars speeding into Las Vegas,

and an
drove a differen
roundin
board s
by two tail en
trotted
to his
loaded