

Boulder Family To ^{Aug} Move to Ventura 1951

BOULDER CITY, Aug. 13. — Mr. and Mrs. Willard Slater and five children, 1317 Denver, will leave Boulder City Aug. 17 for Ventura, Calif., where Slater has accepted a position as hydrologist with the United Water Conservation District, working under famed water expert Julian Hines, who will head the district.

Slater has been employed here for the past five years as hydrologist in the project planning division of the Bureau of Reclamation. He has been active in both boy and girl scout work and is president of the local Girl Scout Council.

The Slaters have three sons, Michael, 11, Mark, seven, and Dick, six; and two daughters, Patricia, eight, and Diane, two.