

26 Families Move Into Demountable Vancouver Houses

The Vancouver houses are filling up. 1,2

Those 50 demountable dwellings brought here from the Washington city for use of Bureau of Reclamation employes are ready for occupancy, and 26 families have moved in.

Assignments of the others have been made, and they will soon be tenanted.

Some of the new residents had been living outside Boulder City; some had been renting private dwellings; some had been living in portable houses.

Heads of the 26 families and the