

Jap Women in Crowds Vicious in Treatment of Prisoners, Says Boodgood

Japanese women in crowds were the most vicious in treatment of American war prisoners, according to Sgt. Donal Bloodgood of Long Beach, former Boulder City lad, who bailed out of a damaged superfort near Tokyo late last May, according to stories released after freeing of American prisoners and one of which

1 Sep 1945