

"
Good will among men"
"

December 19, 1941

Rotarian Clee,

During the first year Superintendent Elbert Edwards and I were associated in the administrative affairs of Boulder City Schools, I once asked Elbert what he considered the greatest need of mankind. He reached for a pad and pencil and scrawled out four words. I carried the slip in my pocket a long while. This is a photostatic copy of it. Christmas compliments to you and yours!

Elton M. Garrett

1004 176.121