

The

'30s

A time to remember

EDITED AND WITH COMMENTARY BY

Don Congdon

The THIRTIES

A TIME TO REMEMBER

edited by DON CONGDON

SIMON AND SCHUSTER • NEW YORK • 1962

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED
INCLUDING THE RIGHT OF REPRODUCTION
IN WHOLE OR IN PART IN ANY FORM
COPYRIGHT © 1962 BY DON CONGDON
PUBLISHED BY SIMON AND SCHUSTER, INC.
ROCKEFELLER CENTER, 630 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK 20, N. Y.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS CATALOG CARD NUMBER: 61-12854
MANUFACTURED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
BY KINGSPORT PRESS, INC., KINGSPORT, TENN.
FIRST PRINTING

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

- "I Remember the Thirties"—Copyright 1960 by John Steinbeck; reprinted by permission of McIntosh & Otis, Inc.
- "From Riches to Rags" and other selections from The Age of the Great Depression—Copyright 1948 by The Macmillan Company; reprinted by permission of the Publisher.
- "How to Solve the Traffic Situation"—Copyright 1930 by Condé Nast Publications Inc.; reprinted by permission of Harold Ober Associates, Inc.
- "New England's Tragic Towns"—Copyright 1938 by Louis Adamic; reprinted by permission of Harper & Brothers.
- "Catastrophe in Coal"—Copyright 1960 by Irving Bernstein; reprinted by permission of Houghton Mifflin Company.
- Selections from Only Yesterday—Copyright 1931 by Frederick Lewis Allen; reprinted by permission of Harper & Brothers.
- "Pepper Martin—The Happiest Hooligan"—Copyright 1959 by W. C. Heinz; reprinted by permission of William Morris Agency, Inc.
- "The Gashouse Gang, the Deans, and Other Heroes," from Baseball—Copyright 1947 by Robert Smith; reprinted by permission of Simon and Schuster.
- "The Texas Babe"—Copyright 1932 by Condé Nast Publications Inc.; reprinted by permission of Harold Ober Associates, Inc.
- "The Akron and Three Who Came Back"—Copyright 1957 by John Toland; reprinted by permission of Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc.
- "Hitchhiker"—Copyright 1946 by Eric Sevareid; reprinted by permission of Alfred A. Knopf, Inc.
- "The Flight of the Bonus Army"—Copyright 1932 by The New Republic, Inc.; reprinted by permission of the Author and The New Republic.
- "The Inaugural"—Copyright 1957 by Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr.; reprinted by permission of Houghton Mifflin Company.
- "The Great Bank Holiday"—Copyright 1960 by Curtis Publishing Company; reprinted by permission of Harold Matson Company.
- "The Rise of Federal Relief" and "More on the Rise of Federal Relief"—Copyright 1958 by Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr.; reprinted by permission of Houghton Mifflin Company.
- "How to Relieve Everybody"—Copyright 1933 by Condé Nast Publications Inc.; reprinted by permission of Harold Ober Associates, Inc.
- "Weary Willie"—Copyright 1939 by The University of North Carolina; reprinted by permission of University of North Carolina Press.
- Material in "Scottsboro Boys" abstracted from They Shall Be Free—Copyright 1951 by Allan K. Chalmers; used by permission of Doubleday & Company, Inc.
- "Life with Fiorello"—Copyright 1955 by Ernest Cuneo; reprinted by permission of The Macmillan Company.
- "Repeal" and other selections from Since Yesterday—Copyright 1939, 1940 by Harper & Brothers; reprinted by permission of the Publisher.
- "The Judging of Hauptmann" and "Morro Castle Aftermath"—Copyright 1935 by Stanley Walker; reprinted by permission of the Author.
- "Dillinger"—Copyright 1956 by Fawcett Publications, Inc.; reprinted by permission of the Author.
- "The Great Nickel Panic"—Copyright 1931 by Condé Nast Publications Inc.; reprinted by permission of the Author.
- "The Almost-Assassination of Thomas E. Dewey"—Copyright 1951 by Burton B. Turkus and Sid Feder; reprinted by permission of Farrar, Straus and Cudahy, Inc.
- "The Morro Castle Fire"—Copyright 1949 by Simon and Schuster; reprinted by permission of the Author.
- "Rescue at Sea"—Copyright 1934 by The New Republic, Inc.; reprinted by permission of The New Republic.
- "Boulder Dam"—Copyright 1935 by The New Republic, Inc.; reprinted by permission of The New Republic.
- "In Search of America"—Copyright 1937 by W. W. Norton, Inc.; reprinted by permission of the Author.

Table of Contents

FOREWORD	19
PROLOGUE: I REMEMBER THE THIRTIES BY JOHN STEINBECK	23
"Every time a publisher accepted one of my books he went bankrupt. One was accepted by one publisher, printed by a second and issued under a third. But it didn't sell anyway. I began to feel like the Typhoid Mary of the literary world."
FROM RICHES TO RAGS BY DIXON WECTER	29
"Did you hear about the fellow who engaged a hotel room and the clerk asked him whether he wanted it for sleeping or jumping?" "No, but I heard there were two men who jumped hand in hand because they'd held a joint account." —Anonymous jokesters, after the stock market crash
SUNDAY DRIVERS	33
Editor's Commentary
HOW TO SOLVE THE TRAFFIC SITUATION BY COREY FORD	33
"Those pleasure-mad families, all staring rigidly ahead."
WHERE WOULD IT STOP?	36
Editor's Commentary
NEW ENGLAND'S TRAGIC TOWNS BY LOUIS ADAMIC	37
"Oh, I cannot be a slave; I will not be a slave." —Marching song of Lowell girls on strike
THE MINER'S ORDEAL	49
Editor's Commentary

Table of Contents

CATASTROPHE IN COAL BY IRVING BERNSTEIN	50
"You didn't have to be drunk," they said, "To get throwed in the Can; The only thing you needed be Was just a Union Man." —Harlan County Blues
SIGNS OF CHANGE Editor's Commentary	55
BASEBALL IN THE EARLY THIRTIES Editor's Commentary	57
PEPPER MARTIN—THE HAPPIEST HOOLIGAN BY W. C. HEINZ	58
"You don't know how lucky you are not having to play against that Martin. When he's running for first, I can hear him com- ing like doom." —Bill Terry
THE GASHOUSE GANG, THE DEANS, AND OTHER HEROES BY ROBERT SMITH	63
"I hate to do this, Bill, but I done promised some kids I'd fan you with the bases full." —Dizzy Dean, to Bill Terry
MILDRED "BABE" DIDRIKSON ZAHARIAS Editor's Commentary	73
THE TEXAS BABE BY PAUL GALLICO	73
"She had acquired that strange and inexplicable glamour that is a part of every great woman athlete." —Last message from the Akron
QUEEN OF THE SKIES Editor's Commentary	79
THE AKRON AND THREE WHO CAME BACK BY JOHN TOLAND	79
"Akron flying Lakehurst to Philadelphia to Delaware Capes, thence along coast." —Last message from the Akron
SOME PRETTY EXPENSIVE SYSTEMS Editor's Commentary	101
HITCHHIKER BY ERIC SEVAREID	103
"Jesus, you're pretty young to be a dope." —Bus rider

Table of Contents

DOWN AND OUT AT ANACOSTIA	115
Editor's Commentary
MACARTHUR, EISENHOWER AND PATTON VERSUS THE VETS	117
Editor's Commentary
THE FLIGHT OF THE BONUS ARMY BY MALCOLM COWLEY	118
"That army was something more than a lobby; it was the expression of men's desire to huddle together when their courage is gone." —The New Yorker
ELECTION YEAR—1932	123
Editor's Commentary
THE INAUGURAL BY ARTHUR M. SCHLESINGER, JR.	124
"Democracy is not a polite employer." —Herbert Hoover "The people . . . have made me the present instrument of their wishes. In the spirit of the gift I take it." —Franklin D. Roosevelt
THE GREAT BANK HOLIDAY BY WILLIAM MANCHESTER	130
"Those who were termed the Lords of Creation were, it seemed, only the Merchants in the Temple." —Maxwell Geismar
THE HUNDRED DAYS	143
Editor's Commentary
THE RISE OF FEDERAL RELIEF BY ARTHUR M. SCHLESINGER, JR.	144
"Ain't it the truth that all of them unemployed are just America's weaklings?" —Unidentified heckler "Hell, they've got to eat just like other people." —Harry Hopkins
TOO MUCH, TOO SOON	154
Editor's Commentary
HOW TO RELIEVE EVERYBODY BY JOHN RIDDELL	154
"In weeding the Farmer could cut down his surplus production considerably if he would pull up the plants and leave the weeds."

Table of Contents

MORE ON THE RISE OF FEDERAL RELIEF BY ARTHUR M. SCHLESINGER, JR.	159
"The alternative was revolution."
THE NEW DEAL—JUNIOR DIVISION	164
Editor's Commentary
WEARY WILLIE BY NELLIE G. TOLER and JAMES R. ASWELL	166
"I git thirty dollars a month and send twenty-two of it home to them. They need it." —CCC boy
ON A TRAIN TO MEMPHIS	170
Editor's Commentary
SCOTTSBORO BOYS (ABSTRACTED FROM DR. ALLAN K. CHALMERS' They Shall Be Free)	170
"I'm just being held here because I'm a nigger." "When you pray, cry my name to God." —Scottsboro Boys
"NEW YORK, NEW YORK, WHAT A HELL OF A TOWN!"	179
Editor's Commentary
LIFE WITH FIORELLO BY ERNEST CUNEO	179
"My first qualification for this great office is my monumental personal ingratitude!" —Fiorello H. La Guardia
THE NOBLE EXPERIMENT	202
Editor's Commentary
REPEAL BY FREDERICK LEWIS ALLEN	203
"... such half-forgotten triumphs of their ancient skill as Bronx and Jack Rose cocktails."
THE WORST CRIME OF ALL	206
Editor's Commentary
THE LINDBERGH CASE BY FREDERICK LEWIS ALLEN	206
"In a case like this, we cannot wait till Sunday." —Bishop Manning at prayer
THE JUDGING OF HAUPTMANN BY STANLEY WALKER	210
"The case had all the ingredients of a starkly realistic mystery story. It remained for the press, the radio, the officials and the spectators to make of it a fantastic extravaganza."

Table of Contents

THEY CALLED IT BANKBUSTING	217
Editor's Commentary
DILLINGER BY
ALAN HYND	218
"I'll bet some of the people who work in banks would be glad to see us." —John Dillinger
THOSE WERE THE DAYS	242
Editor's Commentary
THE GREAT NICKEL PANIC BY
CREIGHTON PEET	242
"By the twenty-second week of the great crusade 6,682,000 nickels were safely hidden away and nearly a million people had left the city."
THE SYNDICATE	247
Editor's Commentary
THE ALMOST-ASSASSINATION OF
THOMAS E. DEWEY BY
BURTON B. TURKUS and SID FEDER	247
"Them days you could knock off hundreds without getting in no jam." —Dutch Schultz, after his alleged reading of The Forty Days of Musa Dagh
THE MORRO CASTLE FIRE BY
WILLIAM MCFEE	268
"To the portside, two lifeboats were already burning at their davits."
RESCUE AT SEA BY
WARREN R. MOULTON	270
"All day the hissing breakers washed in the dead." —Mary E. Andrews
MORRO CASTLE AFTERMATH BY
STANLEY WALKER	274
"Yeah, I'm tired all right, but I ain't going to see nothing like this for a long time." —A woman on the beach at Asbury Park
THE MAGNIFICENT PUBLIC WORKS	276
Editor's Commentary
BOULDER DAM BY
BRUCE BLIVEN	277
"You seen it: the cage goes out over the canyon, 700 feet high and then in the middle it goes on down. Lots of men couldn't stand it. They'd hang onto the cage and ride back up on the first trip and quit right there." —Boulder Dam spectator

Table of Contents

THE PEOPLE, YES Editor's Commentary	283
IN SEARCH OF AMERICA BY NATHAN ASCH "Those sons of bitches can live through anything. They've got hides like hogs." — Texas farmer, referring to his thirty tenant families	284
SECURITY AT ANY COST Editor's Commentary	307
HUEY LONG: AMERICAN DICTATOR BY HODDING CARTER "I'm going to be President some day." — Senator Huey Long	307
AMATEURS—THERE AIN'T NONE Editor's Commentary	321
PITY THE POOR GIANT BY PAUL GALLICO "This unfortunate pituitary case, who might have been Gar- gantua himself, was a poor simple-minded peasant."	321
THE BROWN BOMBER Editor's Commentary	333
JOE LOUIS NEVER SMILES BY JONATHAN MITCHELL "It is almost impossible for a Negro to get a white fighter to take a dive for him. Louis had to carve out his record with his fists, and did." — Paul Gallico	333
THE NEW LEISURE Editor's Commentary More Time to Play Café Society Newspapers and Comic Strips Jokes, Gags and a Bit of Satire	338
THE JOINT IS JUMPING Editor's Commentary	343

Table of Contents

THE SWING ERA BY MARSHALL STEARNS	344
"What is jazz, Mr. Waller?" "Madam, if you don't know by now, don't mess with it." —Exchange between night-club patron and Fats Waller
LISTENING TO B.G. Editor's Commentary	353
THE SPIRIT OF JAZZ BY OTIS FERGUSON	353
"And when the clarinet takes up you will hear the phrases fall as clear as rain, with a sustained glow of personal essence that starts where command of the instrument leaves off."
LET'S DANCE Editor's Commentary	356
BREAKFAST DANCE, IN HARLEM BY OTIS FERGUSON	357
"Doggone, ain't no meat here at all. What that man mean, dishing me out this for charmaine?" —Tenor-sax man
THAT LUSH LIFE IN CELLULOID Editor's Commentary	362
THE MOVIES BY ARTHUR KNIGHT	364
"She has two expressions—joy and indigestion." —Anonymous, about a famous movie actress "Hollywood is a place where you spend more than you make, on things you don't need, to impress people you don't like." —Ken Murray
DISASTER IN THE FARM LANDS Editor's Commentary	386
WHEN THE FARMS BLEW AWAY BY FREDERICK LEWIS ALLEN	386
"The grass was dead—back of the history of the dust storms, back of the 9 million acres of Great Plains ruined by the wind, back of the 80 million acres impoverished by wind and water, is the grass." —Fortune, November 1935
NEW WORLD A-COMIN' Editor's Commentary	391

Table of Contents

TVA BY DIXON WECTER	391
" 'Land and water,' Harcourt Morgan said. "And democracy, I thought. " 'Land and water,' he repeated, 'that's all we are; that's all any people are.' " —Jonathan Daniels
FASHIONS—HIGH AND LOW Editor's Commentary	395
FASHION AND DESIGN BY CECIL BEATON	397
"In her shop a shocking-pink sofa became a pair of lips."
GOING TO COLLEGE Editor's Commentary Arthur Miller at Michigan	400
YOUTH IN COLLEGE BY Fortune Magazine Staff	401
"We saw a new world coming every third morning." —Arthur Miller
A PRESIDENT WHO CARED Editor's Commentary	413
F.D.R. AS PRESIDENT BY ARTHUR M. SCHLESINGER, JR.	414
"Mr. President, Mr. Howe says that is a hell of a thing to do." "That isn't what Howe said, Lizzie. He told me to go to hell." —Mrs. McDuffie and F.D.R.
ELECTION YEAR—1936 Editor's Commentary	432
CAMPAIGN BY MARQUIS CHILDS	432
"I'll stake my reputation as a political prophet on Landon's victory." —William Randolph Hearst
THE PRESS AND THE CAMPAIGN Editor's Commentary	444
THE CHOICE TOMORROW BY H. L. MENCKEN	444
"All the isms took it on the chin—including journalism." —The New Republic

Table of Contents

THE NEW DEAL AND THE SUPREME COURT	448
Editor's Commentary
COURT PACKING: THE MISCALCULATED RISK BY JAMES MACGREGOR BURNS	450
"What a grand fight it is going to be!" —F.D.R., on the reaction to his Supreme Court plan
THE C.I.O. TAKES THE OFFENSIVE	476
Editor's Commentary
WORKING IN THE DETROIT AUTO PLANTS BY HERBERT HARRIS	477
"They're not men any more if you know what I mean. They're not men. My husband's only thirty, but to look at him you'd think he was fifty and all played out. And unless we have the union things will get worse." —Wife of a Flint worker
STRIKE AT THE FLINT PLANT BY BRUCE BLIVEN	487
"Wages, working conditions, and honest collective bargaining, have little, if anything, to do with the underlying situation." —Alfred P. Sloan, President of General Motors
SIT-DOWN AT GENERAL MOTORS BY HERBERT HARRIS	488
"You can't ride a horse through a brick wall." —A sit-downer
BOOKSELLING AND BEST SELLERS	496
Editor's Commentary
HARD TIMES AND THE AUTHOR BY EDWARD WEEKS	497
"A fellow publisher has made a composite picture of the income of a popular novelist whose new book has just sold 50,000 copies and who is eager to pursue every offer. Before you read these figures, let me caution you that mighty few moguls are capable of this earning power and still fewer of them can maintain it for long."
MAJOR NOVELISTS	499
Editor's Commentary
Fitzgerald
Hemingway
Dos Passos
Faulkner
Wolfe

Table of Contents

Farrell
Steinbeck
The Next in Line
THE WRITERS' PROJECT	506
Editor's Commentary
THE GUIDES BY
ROBERT CANTWELL	506
"It is difficult to think of our New England ancestors as thrifty, practical folk when you discover them equipping their homes with trap doors and sliding panels."
THEATER—THE FABULOUS INVALID	509
Editor's Commentary
THEATER GROUPS BY
HAROLD CLURMAN	510
The Group Theater
Odets
Groups
"Aren't very many of the Federal Theater productions amateurish?"
"Yes—and so are many Broadway productions."
— Theater buff and Harold Clurman
THE PLAYS OF THE THIRTIES BY
WARD MOREHOUSE	522
"Producers went broke, as did the actors (broader than usual), but there were no mass suicides."
THE MUSICALS BY
GUY BOLTON	525
"The moment I looked at the chorus, I knew they could sing."
— Channing Pollock
NEW FACES BY
DANIEL BLUM	527
"Stars to be."
GUNS AND IDEALISTS	530
Editor's Commentary
FIGHTING IN SPAIN BY
ALVAH C. BESSIE	532
"Are you a mouse? Are you timid about such modern improvements as, say, lipstick pencils—or, worse, do you think of them in a vague impersonal way, as you would the War in Spain?"
— Vogue

Table of Contents

A CERTAIN KIND OF IDEALIST	541
Editor's Commentary
REPORT ON AN AMERICAN COMMUNIST BY MORRIS ERNST and DAVID LOTH	541
"If you're not with us, you're against us." —Communist party line
A TURN FOR THE WORSE	545
Editor's Commentary
RECESSION BY FREDERICK LEWIS ALLEN	545
"Everything will work out all right if we just sit tight and keep quiet." —F.D.R.
THE WRATHFUL ELEMENTS	548
Editor's Commentary
NEW ENGLAND HURRICANE BY JOHN Q. STEWART	549
"One fortunate family, fleeing by automobile toward high ground at fifty miles an hour, barely outran the pursuing sea."
OLD-TIME RADIO	559
Editor's Commentary
SOUND AND FURY BY FRANCIS CHASE, JR.	560
"David Sarnoff, head of RCA, offered Dr. Albert Einstein $50,000 a year, to make one broadcast a week. Einstein re- jected the offer, saying, 'I would rather talk to three people who understand me, than be paid for speaking to millions who don't.'" —Leonard Lyons
"If the whole show rolled up tonight, and the Angel Gabriel summoned us all for final judgment, who'd get your vote for having done the finest, friendliest job in the last five years? 'My vote would go to a smiling, simple man, neither young, handsome, nor sensational, whose friendly faith has restored hope and courage to a dismayed generation—Lord love him —Major Bowes!" —Hearst columnist
THE MEN FROM MARS BY JOHN HOUSEMAN	583
"Uga-Ugaboo-Ugaboo-Boo-Uga!" —Fraternal greeting by Mel Blanc on the Jack Benny show.
NO RISKS, NO COMMITMENTS	598
Editor's Commentary

Table of Contents

THE RELUCTANT WORLD POWER BY DEXTER PERKINS	598
"Minute Men were rare. Some refused to move until the clock was striking the hour—Fifty-nine-minute Men at best." —Gerald W. Johnson
THE DECLINE OF TIN PAN ALLEY Editor's Commentary	608
SONGS OF THE THIRTIES Editor's Commentary	608
THE MARVELS OF ADVERTISING Editor's Commentary	612
THE CONSUMER AND SCIENCE BY DIXON WECTER	613
"It is with a feeling of humbleness that I come to this moment of announcing the birth in this country of a new art so impor- tant in its implications that it is bound to affect all society." —David Sarnoff announcing the birth of television
"MAYBE YOU CAN EXPLAIN IT TO ME" Editor's Commentary	619
MARIAN ANDERSON AND THE D.A.R. BY WALTER WHITE	620
"I shouted with happiness to see the sun."
THE NATION'S HEARTBEAT WAS NEVER MORE LOUD AND CLEAR Editor's Commentary	625