

Boulder Worker Dies

BOULDER CITY — LaMar Adams, 50, of 1616 Arizona, died at the Boulder City Hospital Friday evening as result of a heart attack he suffered at work at Boulder Dam earlier in the day. was transferred here from the Owens Valley hydroelectric system in February 1959.

He leaves his wife, Mary, employed at Boulder City library; and a daughter, Mrs. Dick (Sue) Fehler, also of Boulder City.

An electric plant operator for the Department of Water and Power for the City of Los Angeles since 1943, he Arrangements are pending.