HARPETH HALL'S PRIMA DONNA AND MAESTRO: MISS EWING AND MRS. SOUBY

TO

MISS FRANCES EWING

The 1958 MILESTONES is proudly dedicated.
She has taught us that "there is music far sweeter than the sound of an instrument" to be found when there is "harmony, order, and proportion" in the mind and soul.

MRS. SUSAN S. SOUBY

"[She] laid
The keynote of all harmonies; [she] planned
all perfect combinations, and [she] made us so that we could hear and understand."

CLUB SONG

Cheer for the club we love; Angkor is best.
 This club ranks way above, and in work and play excels the rest.

What is our club? We're the Angkors.
 Proud to be it, can't you see it?
 When we're winning, then we're grinning;
 And when we lose, we smile all the while.
 We're Angkor born and Angkor bred,
 And when we die we're Angkor dead.
 All for the Angkors, cheer for the Angkors;
 We're for the Angkors—Hooray!

Angkor Club

CLUB SONG

On Ariston, on Ariston,
 Forward to the goal.
 Always loyal, always true,
 We're always proud of you.
 Keep on fighting, never weaken;
 That's the way for all.
 Ariston Club, above all else
 At Harpeth Hall.

 Lift up and do.
 Lift up your heads, push forward,
 And the spirit's sure to carry through.

 We're going to fight for the club we love,

CLUB SONG

So long to old Ariston; Angkor farewell;

Good-bye to Eccowasin, though they rank well.

I want to be a Triad, wear red and white.

Step up, congratulate me; I know I'm right.

I want to wear the ribbons over my breast.

I want to be a Triad; Triad is best.
