

LOVE AND KISSES TO MY ECONOMIC AND HISTORY TEACHERS---I LIVED ON THE SAME STREET AS ONE TEACHER. SHE DIDN'T WANT TO DISGRACE OUR PROPER NEIGHBORHOOD---SO SHE EASED ME THROUGH HER CLASS.

AND THEN, OF COURSE, THERE WAS ^{Miss Anne Allison} DR. BARTON, MR. BENEDICT, AND DEAN BURKE----I OFTEN WONDERED HOW THEY KEPT SUCH WONDERFUL COMPOSSURE WHEN THEY SPOKE IN CHAPEL AND LOOKED AT THOSE ROWS OF FACIAL EXPRESSIONS OR LACK OF EXPRESSION. I WONDER IF ANY OF THOSE MONITORS THAT HID BEHIND THE CHAPEL POSTS BECAME EXPERT SHARPSHOOTERS LATER IN LIFE? BLESS THE FACULTY MEMBERS, ALL THE MAIDS, COOKS, WATCHMEN, HANDYMEN AND WHAT HAD WE!!!

AND THEN THERE WERE THE DIFFERENT EVENTS---GIRLS BURNING THEIR LUNGS OUT ON THE HOCKEY FIELD, MISSING THE BALLS ON THE TENNIS COURTS, FEELING LIKE A GREAT WET FIELD HOUSE IN THOSE GRAY COTTON "TANK SUITS",---RACING TO THE LOCKER ROOM TO SWIPE SOME ONE ELSE'S GYM CLOTHES---OH! WHAT ACTIVITIES!!! THERE WERE THE SPECIAL PROGRAMS IN CHAPEL, TEAS IN ACKLEY HALL---CLASS AND CLUB PARTIES AND THAT GREAT DAY---MAY DAY!!! DID WE REALLY KNOW WHAT WE WERE DOING WHEN WE DANCED OR TRIPPED AROUND THE MAY POLES?? ON THAT MAY DAY, IT WAS GOOD THINKING OF MISS MORRISON'S PART TO LET US WALK AROUND THE DRIVE WAY FIRST BEFORE THE HORSES PULLING THE MAY QUEEN WERE GIVEN A CHANCE TO MISBEHAVE.

AND THEN GRADUATION---WE COULDN'T HAVE HAD GRADUATION IF THERE HADN'T BEEN THE LIBRARY WHERE WE SPENT HALF THE TIME TRYING TO FIND THE BOOKS, AND THE OTHER HALF WRITING NOTES ABOUT THE WEEK-END TO GO HOME!!!! SEE SEE GOING AND COMING TO ---THE WORLD AWAITED US, AND WE WENT AND CAME BACK. SOME OF US
