SOUND.....MODERN DANCE CLUB

Choreography: Leslie Matthews and Dancers

Music: Art of Noise

This piece is an exploration of the physics of sound. Sound is waves and vibrations that bend, travel at different speeds, distort, echo, and split to reform. For sound to occur, there must be a transmitter and a receiver. Sound creates emotional responses. The absence of sound is silence.

YOU ARE WELCOME BACKSTAGE AFTER THE PERFORMANCE!!

Stephanie Hamilton had her early dance training in Memphis with Martha Scott, Charles Kirby, Manolo Agullo, Jeremy Blanton, and Nelle Fisher. Ms. Hamilton is very active in musical theatre in Nashville. She has choreographed many shows for Circle Theatre including Dames at Sea, Pippin, My Fair Lady, Cabaret, 1940 Radio Hour and Joseph and the Technicolor Dream Coat. She also choreographed Mame, 42nd Street, Snoopy, No, No Nanette, Babes in Toyland, and Godspell for Harpeth Hall. In addition to directing the Tap and Ballet Clubs, Ms. Hamilton teaches 7th and 8th grade dance at Harpeth Hall.

Video tapes of this dance concert are available and may be ordered by filling out an order form before the performance, or during intermission.
