

After the program in the chapel, a reception will be held in Recreation Hall. Alumnae, members of the faculty and staff, and friends are cordially invited to attend. Those persons who have been connected with Ward-Belmont during its whole existence as the consolidated school will be the honor guests at the reception. Those who have been affiliated with the school over this period of years, and who will be thus recognized, are Mrs. J. D. Blanton, Mrs. Solon Rose, Miss Amelia Throne, Miss Mary Venable Blythe, Miss Martha Cason, Miss Theodora Cooley Scruggs, Miss Catherine Morrison, Mr. F. Arthur Henkel, Miss Olive Carter Ross, Miss Pauline S. Townsend, and Miss Florence Boyer. A number of these had been with either Ward Seminary or Belmont College before the consolidation, ^{while} ~~and~~ several came to the combined schools the first year of the merger. Their sincere loyalty to the lasting features ~~of the school~~ that ~~are~~ remembered by both old and new girls when they think of Ward-Belmont.

On Saturday, May 14, the Tennessee Alumnae group will meet at 11:30 in Club Village for a short business session and picnic lunch. This alumnae meeting is to represent both the Ward and Belmont groups, as well as the alumnae of the consolidated school. It is indeed fitting that this twenty-fifth year should see a meeting of the alumnae of Belmont College, Ward Seminary, and Ward-Belmont School, for each group of the two founding schools naturally feels ^{an} interest in the visible remains of their alma mater, while the alumnae of Ward-Belmont are also interested in the development of the school since 1913. Invitations have gone out from the Alumnae Office to all alumnae in Tennessee to be present at this meeting, at which ~~was~~ Grace Cavert Stumb (Mrs. Paul, Jr.), '31, now President of Ward-Belmont Alumnae Association, will preside. Others who will take part on the program are Mr. A. B. Benedict, President of the school, Miss Mai Flournoy Van Deren, Alumnae
