Howell, a graduate of Belmont College. ^{7??} Frances Ewing, '28, has charge of special invitations and ^{Miss} Nancy Lunsford, '33, ^{Miss} is in charge of arrangements for the picnic lunch.

Following this meeting ⁱⁿ Club Village, everyone is invited to attend the annual May-Day Festival which will be held on the center campus at three o'clock.

In connection with this twenty-fifth year celebration, there is also to be held on the campus a reunion of the Class of 1928. A number of those who graduated at Ward-Belmont ten years ago are planning to return not only for the reunion but for the celebration. Miss Mary Elizabeth Cayce, '28 is in charge of the arrangements for that meeting. Not only will the members of this class attend the activities of the weekend, but several entertainments exclusively for that group are being planned.
