

have worked unswervingly under Dr. Blanton and Dr. Barton, and are giving their full confidence to Mr. Benedict. In 1866 Dr. William E. Ward said to the first graduating class of his Seminary, " we who have instructed you beg to assure you that we feel for each of you personally, the liveliest interest in life." Such has been the hope and example pf these who have been a part of Ward-Belmont for a quarter of a century or more.

2) The hopes expressed so many years ago are true to-day. Ward-Belmont goes on. On this Twenty-fifth Anniversary celebration, we view the past, the present, and look towards the future. Come back and take part in this.
