From ~~Through~~ the three student publications, girls interested in writing can choose the one which will give them the best ~~xxx~~ experience in their chosen field. The Hyphen is the school newspaper of four pages published weekly. The Milestones, year-book, serves as a means of permanently recording the activities of the entire school year. The youngest of the publications is the Chinese, literary magazine, in which ~~the~~ literary activities of the students; poetry, short stories, and essays, are recorded. A sixteen page magazine of modern make-up, ~~xxxx~~ <sup>it</sup> is published three times during the school year. All three of these publications are entirely the work of the students under the supervision of a faculty advisor.

Cultural Advantages

Aside from the cultural advantages of Nashville itself, Ward-Belmont offers to her students an Artists Series which brings to the school auditorium each year outstanding artists of concert and stage. Some of these who have appeared before Ward-Belmont audiences are: Kathryn Meisle, Jose Iturbi, Albert Spalding, Jascha Heifetz, Ruth Page and Harold Kreutberg, Ethel Bartlett and Rae Robertson, and Mischa Elman. A few celebrities of the regular assembly programs have been: Irina Skariatina, Sir Wilfred Grenfell, James Stevens, Bertita Harding, and Carl Sandberg.

Several trips to points of interest throughout the country are held each year by the school. Some of these in other years have included: Chicago and the World's Fair, Washington, New York, Niagara Falls, Chattanooga, Charleston and the Magnolia Gardens, Muscle Shoals, Mammoth Cave, and Natchez, ~~xxxx~~.

Classes

Ward-Belmont is accredited by the Association of Colleges and Secondary School<sup>5</sup> of the Southern States, both in its preparatory school division and its junior college division. The two divisions are separate and distinct so far as content of courses, class rooms, libraries, and teaching staff are concerned. The college preparatory ~~division~~ division is under a principal while the junior college
