DEDICATION

Have you ever met a teacher who remembers each student not as just another name in her roll book but as a individual? This year's MILESTONES is dedicated to such a person. Mrs. Partee is sensitive, understanding, and well-informed as well as talented in the world of art. Her artistic zeal extends beyond her classroom as shown by her promotion of many projects not sponsored by the Art Department. Mrs. Partee's helpful encouragement spurs her students to probe more deeply into the field of art. Because Mrs. Partee gives her time so unselfishly to help all Harpeth Hall girls, we would like to recognize her efforts in MILESTONES 1972.

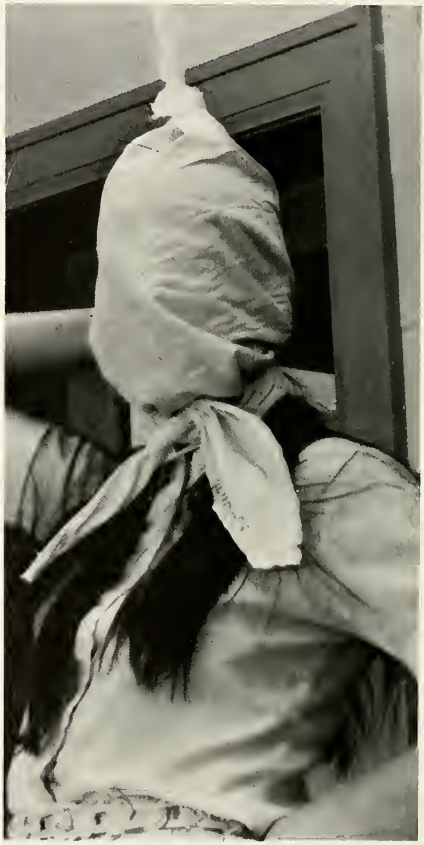

Harpeth Hall is . . .

. . . full of interesting people.

. . . that one hour at lunch when you have time to be exactly what you are—A NUT!

. . . learning to work together on a hockey field as well as in a classroom.

. . . waiting. It may be for the bell to ring or for your hook-up or for a college acceptance.

. . . work, work that prepares you for the rest of your life.

. . . Monday, when "blah" is the only word for it.

. . . alive at Christmas. Snow and special projects keep everyone cheerful and in the holiday spirit.

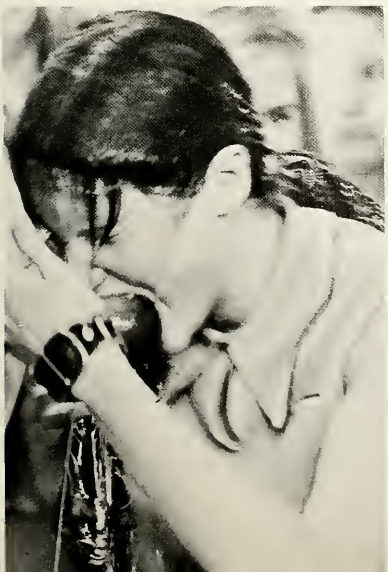

. . . a school for "refined" young ladies.

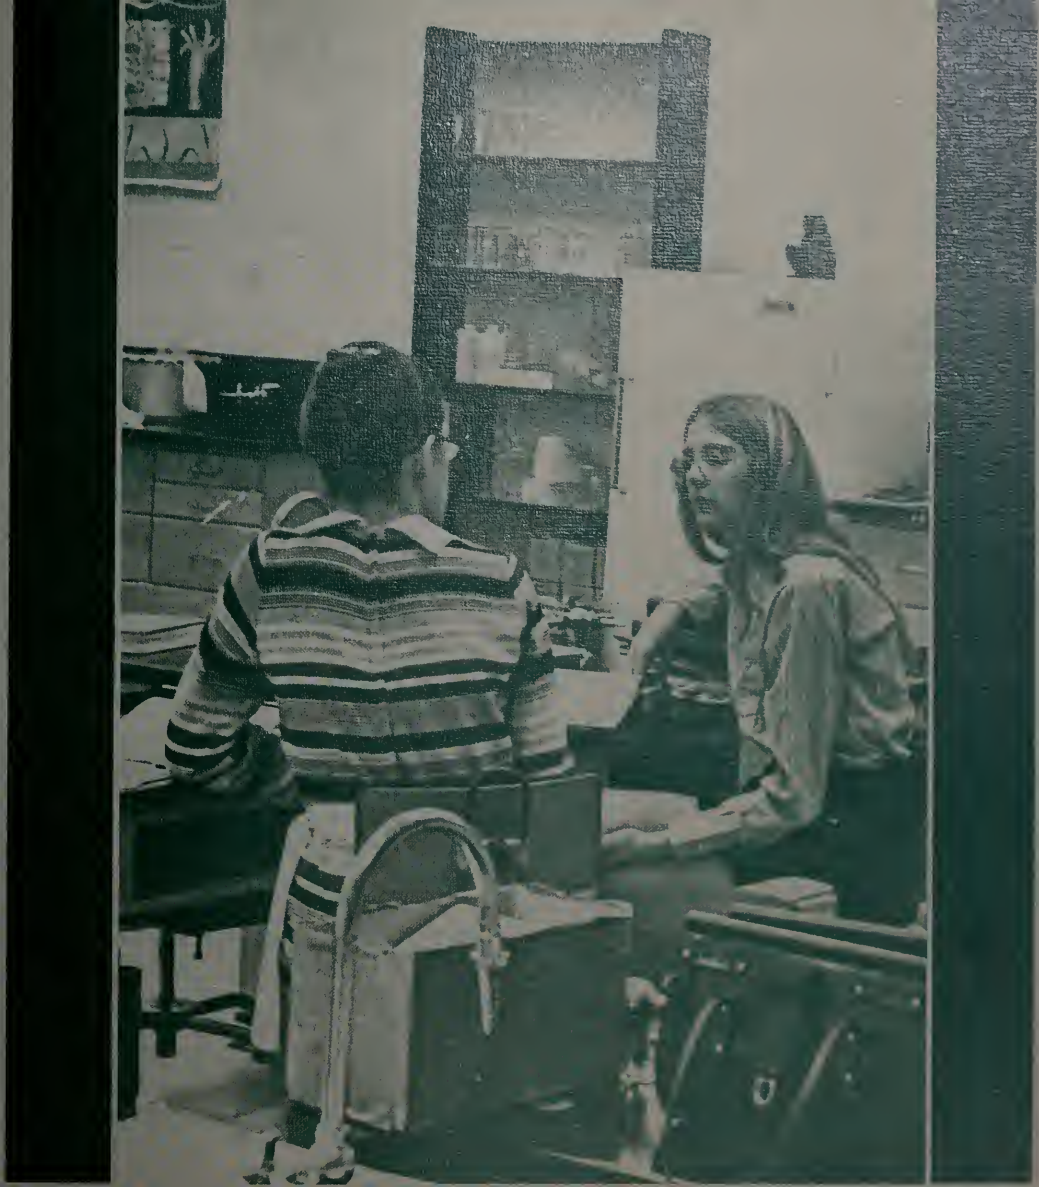

This is Harpeth Hall.

FACULTY

MISS McMURRY

HEADMISTRESS

"We didn't deserve to find someone who could give her own special touch to everything in just one year. Well, we found her anyway; she's called Miss McMurry. Just lucky, I guess."

This is a quote from the 1964 MILESTONES. After only one year those girls realized that they had found a truly unusual and capable person to become the new Headmistress. Now, seven years later, she is still as refreshing and full of innovations and ideas as she was when she first arrived at Harpeth Hall. The 1972 MILESTONES wishes to say: we're not "just lucky," we're very, very, very lucky.

MISS FESSEY

DIRECTOR OF THE MIDDLE SCHOOL

As a new student entering Harpeth Hall one makes many new friends. Among these new acquaintances is Miss Fessey, Director of the Middle School. As sponsor of the Middle School Council, Miss Fessey guides the students wisely during their three years there. She listens to the problems and suggestions sympathetically and in an understanding way. Because of her kind and helpful manner, Miss Fessey contributes greatly to the lives of all Harpeth Hall girls.

MISS PENNY

COUNSELOR

To the Freshmen and Sophomores at Harpeth Hall, Miss Penny is an elusive figure whom they hope to get to know. For the Juniors and Seniors, Miss Penny acts as a mediator between colleges and students. Also her individual counseling helps each student to solve personal and school-related problems. To the Student Council she is a fearless leader who copes with their problems every Tuesday during lunch. As for the Annual Staff, her wit and sound advice help them to cope with old problems again and again and again. . . .

1954-1972

When last we met, there was among us
Laughing-eyed, one who stood on tiptoe to meet life.
One who sought for answers, meaning, everywhere.
"That's the way it's always been" was not enough to slake her thirst
For knowing why.
Yet, told the story of a lonely man,
She was not ashamed to cry.
Because, I guess, there were times—
And that right often—
When she was lonely;
Her kind of people always are.
We who live in black and white
(not living color)
Saw how, Ophelia-like, with flowers, she reached too far.
"But a man's reach should exceed his grasp,"
The poet said,
"Or what's a heaven for?"
Always now for us—the laughing-eyed, the tender, slender girl
Keeping time to the music that she hears—
And we do not weep for her, whom we have loved,
But rejoice that she has lived.

—Mrs. Alfred Overholser

PAULA

If you have not met Paula Rippon, the New Zealand A.F.S. student this year, you have missed something special. At first glance, she is a vivacious blonde with an interesting British accent. As you get to know her you find her to be a girl who finds time to play in spite of the fact that she is carrying an unusually full schedule at school, where she is a member of the Student Council and a Senior Class Cheerleader. Many Seniors also found her witty comments relaxing during the Senior Play. In addition to her school work she sings in a choir and has a part-time job. We are grateful to the A.F.S. Club for giving us an opportunity to meet and know Paula.

Green Team ..... DANA BUTTREY

Gray Team ..... DEBORAH EZELL

The Sixth Grade made their debut into Harpeth Hall life this year, introducing such novelties as a guinea pig, library classrooms, and enthusiasm equal to that of any of the older classes. These girls, with their two teams, the "Greenie Meanies" and the "Greyhounds," add a refreshing and original touch to our campus.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Throughout the year the Student Council promotes many projects for the enjoyment and benefit of Harpeth Hall girls. This fall they devised an exciting and different orientation for incoming Freshmen. The annual Christmas Dance is the Student Council's contribution to the advancement of a Harpeth Hall girl's social life. The Student Council also helps to support a Korean orphanage. The All-Club Picnic, which is one of the concluding events of the year, is a function of the Student Council. Through the efforts of each hardworking girl, the Student Council helps to bridge the gap between the students and the school.

STUDENT-FACULTY COMMITTEE

The Student-Faculty Committee serves as a long-needed link between students and teachers. This year they have determined a dress code that is acceptable to both students and teachers. They have brought many desirable changes to Harpeth Hall including a new coke machine in the cafeteria. They have also worked diligently to make the exchange program between Harpeth Hall and Peabody a success. The Student-Faculty committee offers an excellent opportunity for discussion of suggestions, concerns, and changes affecting school life.

When a Harpeth Hall girl becomes a Senior, she can be recognized in many ways for her achievement during the past three years. One way is to be offered membership in the Honor Society. These girls plan all chapel programs and introduce the guest speakers. Being in the Honor Society is an honor for which one should strive.

The Middle School Council is a student-run organization sponsored by Miss Fessey and composed of representatives from each homeroom. Along with sponsoring the Grandmother's Tea, these students help to enforce the rules and regulations of the Middle School. The effective work of these girls and the responsible leadership of Miss Fessey contribute greatly to Harpeth Hall.

MILESTONES 1972

The MILESTONES Staff is a group of individuals who work as a team to contribute and combine their ideas and talents which are necessary for the publication of the yearbook. To the surprise of a dedicated sponsor, Miss Penny, this task is accomplished between the eating and dieting and giggling and crying at the Friday afternoon gatherings. The members of the staff attempt to make the yearbook representative of all aspects of school life. We hope that our enjoyment in working on this annual will be reflected in the pages of MILESTONES 1972.

Penstaff adds a special dimension to life at Harpeth Hall. Little do we realize the time and effort which goes into compiling a collection of the original poetry and short stories of many talented students. Members of Penstaff are not only those who can write but those who can appreciate beauty and creativity.

HONORS

LADY OF THE HALL

Each year the student body chooses a Senior who, to them, represents the highest ideals of our school. This girl is named Lady of the Hall. She and her Court, a group of girls also representing the highest goals of Harpeth Hall, are presented at an annual ceremony held in their honor. No girl deserved the honor any more than did Sabele Foster, this year's Student Council President. Attending her in the ceremony were the Senior Maid, Ginger Byrn; the Junior Maid, Carrie Griscom; the Sophomore Maid, Holly Thorne; and the Freshman Maid, Tara Crenshaw. Announcing these girls were the Eighth Grade Page, Celeste Gray, and the Seventh Grade Page, Emmie Dillon. Representing the Sixth Grade was Mary Phil Hamilton, the Crown Bearer. The Flower Girls were Amy Harvey and Wende Hall. These young ladies have most assuredly displayed the qualities that a Harpeth Hall lady should possess.

CITIZENSHIP BRACELET

The Citizenship Bracelet is presented to the senior who has earned the highest number of citizenship points during her four years at Harpeth Hall. This year Cindy Hunt received the Bracelet. Cindy has shown her devotion to Harpeth Hall by assuming an active role in her club, her class, and the Student Council. She is a warm, vivacious person who has given much of herself to the school in her four years. All the students respect Cindy and are glad that she received this award for her outstanding achievements in citizenship.

KATIE WRAY AWARD

The Katie Wray Award is one of the greatest honors that a Harpeth Hall girl can receive. The recipient of this award has the highest grade point average in her graduating class during her four years at Harpeth Hall. This year Beth Collins was the recipient of the award. Beth not only had the highest average in her graduating class but she also had the highest average that any graduate of Harpeth Hall has ever attained. We are all extremely proud of Beth not only for her scholastic ability but also for her excellent citizenship, leadership, and athletic ability. Beth has most certainly shown herself to be an outstanding Harpeth Hall student.

Commendees: Alice Hinton, Kim Sumner, Gray Oliver, Betsy Sanford, Floy Oliver.

NATIONAL MERIT AWARDS

This year, three Seniors were selected as National Merit Semifinalists, which placed them in the top one percent of the nation's Seniors. Five others, in the top two percent, were chosen as Commendees. Early this spring, we were informed that the three girls chosen as Semifinalists were now approved as Finalists. We are truly proud of these girls.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

In this day and age, how many people celebrate George Washington's birthday? At Harpeth Hall, we still do. Troops of soldiers, bands of sailors, and distinguished ladies and gentlemen of President Washington's time are present at his annual birthday ball. The gymnasium is packed with people as they gather to catch a glimpse of Revolutionary times as performed by the Freshman Class. Each year a few surprises spring up; for example, a "Hole in the Wall" might be lost or a soldier might be left behind and later "court martialed." Nevertheless, this tradition is one of the fun times at Harpeth Hall that we remember.

SENIOR PLAY

How do you solve a problem like the Seniors? . . . It is I, the Magnificent . . . Super S-E-N-I-O-R . . . Make like a hockey player and get the puck out of here . . . We all live in a Yellow Senior House . . . The only thing I've seen them do with any zeal at all is pulling their skirts and running from a teacher with a yardstick . . . It must be toilet paper! . . . President Peeps . . . that hot honey Miss Webster picked up at the telephone company . . . There's no business like Nun business . . . Thank you, Fearless Frog . . . if they could see us now! . . . A screaming Nun too! . . . Just you wait, Sam McMurry! . . . A tribute to the Class of '72.

JUNIOR PLAY

You are now in Popsicle Land . . . Socialites, Freaks, and Followers . . . My freezing frozen friends . . . Each into her own distinctive mold . . . NUTTY BUDDY! Where is that bungling idiot? . . . We do what she wants us to do do do do . . . All of the chosen, They will be frozen . . . Not a spark of warmth or kindness . . . And then I get like the girls! Hi there! I'm Miss Big Stuff—Who do you think you are? . . . Wouldn't you like to take a little spin in my vet! . . . I'll never understand those girls! . . . But no matter who you are, everyone can go somewhere . . . You are what you do, not what you think or say.

JUNIOR-SENIOR DAY

Harpeth Hall's annual Junior-Senior Day arrived with a splash this year, in more ways than one. The Seniors, dressed as little girls, were notoriously known for their buckets of water and the Juniors, disguised as little boys, for their squirt guns. After school the classes competed in certain athletic events such as tennis, badminton, archery, and baseball. The Seniors managed to win, but both classes had a tremendous amount of fun, and class spirit was at its highest. After the baseball game the students had a picnic to celebrate a truly delightful day.

ALL CLUB PICNIC

Each year the students and faculty gather on the lawn in front of Souby Hall to recognize outstanding members of the student body. One of the highlights of this year's All Club Picnic was the singing of the club songs. The Triads won the award for the best song. Various other awards were presented in academics, athletics, and citizenship. The Aristons won the award for the best citizenship among the clubs, and the Angkors won the athletic trophy. Uninvited guests to the picnic were several thousand locusts who, we hope, will not be with us for another thirteen years.

MIDDLE SCHOOL HONOR DAY

Girls who graduate from the eighth grade at Harpeth Hall are recognized on Middle School Honor Day. Awards are presented to clubs and individuals in the areas of citizenship and scholarship. When the eighth grade girls receive their certificates, it not only marks the end of their Middle School days but also their entrance into the Upper School as the class of '76.

SOPHOMORE PLAY

Each year the Sophomore Class presents a play in honor of the Lady of the Hall and her attendants. This year the play, Alice in Wonderland, directed by Mrs. Williams, was adorable. When Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum twinkled across the stage, the audience roared with laughter. The other characters were equally as captivating, making the play a complete success.

SENIOR BANQUET AND STEP SINGING

The Senior Banquet and Step-Singing are traditions—events of the last week-end at Harpeth Hall for the graduating class and preludes for the succeeding class. The old gather once more before turning over their responsibilities to the new—a time of remembrance and of anticipation.

GRADUATION

White dresses, red roses, sentimental tears, happy smiles—these are the things that we shall remember. Graduation is both a time of reflection on years past and a time of looking ahead. Our class has attained a special wholeness and unity through cooperation and interdependence. After four years filled with both triumphs and disappointments, we graduate from Harpeth Hall prepared to face other challenges whose demands are unknown to us. Whatever the challenge, we must meet it with confidence in ourselves.

FOR THE CLASS OF '72

Our time is approaching
And we will come to a fork in the road
And we'll have to go separate ways.
We started out as little children;
We had dreamers and realists and pessimists,
And maybe there was an optimist among us,
But she never spoke up.
It's funny how we found love through death—
God knows we aren't angels;
Most of the time we are just "hopeless",
But now we have a chance
And we're going to make the most of it.
No one ever realized that we are just searching,
Not until tragedy touched us,
And that pain is what will unite us.
We are all sisters
And children of God.
She was our sister,
And the love for her overflows.
Her search has ended,
But ours is just beginning,
And thinking of that road makes us weary.
But we can help each other
And we can help every person that we meet
By knowing that we have love inside of us
And that we can give that love freely.
A beautiful wild flower began to bloom,
But its life was ended.
We have seeds to plant
And there are flowers that will grow and blossom.
