

Minnie Pearl was hostess yesterday at a luncheon at Harpeth Hall for the many alums who are here for the reunion of Ward-Belmont. She gives a package of her fried chicken to Mrs. Albert Hill of Morristown, Tenn., who with Minnie, dreamed up the idea of the reunion.

Playing "Do you remember?" are, from left, Mrs. Bennett Saunders of Seattle, Mrs. Wills Morgan, Mrs. Richard Ottarson and Mrs. Ed Morgan.

Luncheon

s that
e, Tiff
Wallace
d their
yterian
e Club
erty be-
argaret
their
ns, Dolly
Steele.

the Cen-
n ch eon
adies are
their dark
favor of
. Looking
was the
artin, and
the day,
mie Lou
an Shriv-

jonquils
ed the fa-
re Jessie
Cockrill,
ys Barr,
Jo Ann

Honors Alums

—Staff photos by J. T. Phillips

A Mini Chick passes out favors inscribed
'Your Mini Case for Parking Pennies W-B Reunion-1968.'

Vanderbilt Professor of English at the Roaring Twenties party born Saturday March 16 at Cornelia Wynn White Hospital to Mary

OPEN MONDAY AND FRIDAY NITES 'TIL 9

rtwright,
nd Olga
d.
club was
near Dr.
e faculty
ge, now
English
"Shake-
roduced
eads the
partment
program.
icCarley,
wiggart,
te Jack-
Emily
McFad-
nd Mary
tain
er
Dean K.
er, Ind.,
I marry
aturday,
inner at
Holiday
oad fol-
hearsal.
wedding
tending
parents,
Over-
hard
Mc-

THE