

WARD-BELMONT HYPHEN

PUBLISHED ONCE A WEEK BY THE STUDENTS OF WARD-BELMONT

NASHVILLE, TENN., FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1917.

NUMBER 23

DRS TLY WIN

ence by Freshmen and n of Privileges.

ous.

n unusual satisfaction
members of the Class of e return of the Banner absence. It augers that of the class is, as has
e past, such that Fresh-
s fear to tread upon it.
s it should be!

r is somewhat like a t cannot be kept where ghtfully belong; so we,
ave no fear of losing
ed emblem!

that some do not realdistinguish between the ham or mock. This is
d. We who look upon em, with the same des that which Louis XIV
arone of France, do not
ued on page 4.)

CONCERT MAY 15.

vent which is always
to with interest is the concert by the Wardestra. This year the se place Tuesday evenficient direction of Mr.

the orchestra has been
rk during the winter
ing a program of un-Announcement will be
he numbers to be heard

SOLOIST FOR ROSE MAIDEN CONCERT

Mr. Frank Watkins, Tenor, of Buffalo, N. Y., Engaged as Soloist with Choral Society in Cantata Production May 8th. Other Prominent Soloists to Assail.

The Choral Society, which will give "The Rose Maiden," Tuesday evening, May 8, has engaged as one of their soloists Mr. Frank A. Watkins, tenor, of Buffalo, New York. Mr. Watkins is first tenor in the celebrated Westminster Quartet of Buffalo, and is a soloist of pronounced attainments. He possesses a voice of rich and sympathetic quality and has appeared as soloist with many of the choral organizations of the East and Middle

MR. FRANK WATKINS, Tenor

(Continued on page 4.)

WARD-BELMONT WINS FIRST 'VARSITY GAME

Excellent Team and Dependable Forwards Win Admiration of All.
Enthusiastic Onlookers, Cheers and Songs Inspire Teams.

The first Varsity game was played Saturday, April 21, with St. Cecelia's Academy and ended in the overwhelming score of 49 to 2 in favor of Ward-Belmont.

This game had been long anticipated and an enthusiastic crowd of onlookers filled the benches and encouraged the team with lusty cheers and school songs. There was little need of encouragement, however, among the team of girls chosen from both Panther and Regular Clubs and meriting their places by their diligent practice and commendable playing.

The team work was excellent and some passes down the entire length of the field to the goal were really remarkable. Much credit is due to the perseverance of the girls and their captains, who have practiced faithfully on their signals and plays despite the unceasing heat.

The advantage of team work and much practice was easily seen in comparison with St. Cecelia's team. Although they had some good material, their lack of team work deprived them of any hopes of victory. Their spirit, however, in losing was sportsmanlike, and their playing throughout the game was clean and certainly deserves the heartiest praise.

No matter how excellent a team may be, the real matter of scoring lies with the forwards. Ward-Belmont's 'Varsity forwards are two that have proved
(Continued on page 4.)

MR. KILLEBREW ENTERTAINS PENTA T. A. U'S

The Penta T. A. U. Club was delightfully entertained last Friday afternoon by Mr. Killebrew, whose daughter, Helen, is a charter member of the club. At three o'clock the host called for his guests in a big yellow "Special" and the Penta T. A. U.'s rode away for an afternoon of fun.

After having seen an unusually good picture at the Knickerbocker, "The Sweetheart of the Doomed," the club was entertained at Decker's, and again, as before—the big yellow "Special" called and they rode away—but only back to Ward-Belmont.

SHORT STORY CONTEST

Excellent Short Stories Compete for First Prize. "Allan Carter," by Sophia Williams, Wins Contest.

Recently an unusual interest has been manifested in the English IV classes occasioned by a story contest. The two classes of this department are conducted by Miss Turner and Miss Norris. With the view of stimulating a greater effort and of creating a keener appreciation of the values resulting from this form of work, a joint contest was arranged, in which the first and second best of each class were to be the competitors for first choice.

On Thursday afternoon the members of the different English classes and also outside friends, met with Miss Norris and Miss Turner at 4:30, to hear these prize stories read. The judges, Miss Hilda Mitchell, Miss Henrietta Lowenburg and Miss Anne Marie Steele, were chosen from the three English A classes. Each story that was read was exceedingly interesting and merited much credit to the

HONOR ROLL FOR THIRD QUARTER

larence
, Mary
, Emma
, Elinor
, Mary Book
, Myrtice
ell
ry Elizabeth

Hopkins, Sarah
Howe, Inez Wood
Howse, Elizabeth
Hubbs, Mary Neville
Hudson, Annie Mary
Hughes, Margery
Ingram, Harriett
Irby, Mildred
Jewell, Ada

Palmer, Doris
Parker, Allene
Parman, Martha
Paterson, Agnes Pepper, Olive
Postal, Geneva
Price, Virginia
Reese, Genevieve
Roberts, Martha